DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC organizes National Level Online Competition on Devotional Music (Vocal) of Sri Jayadeva, Sant Meerabai and Jhankaram Maharaj

About the Competition
India is the homeland of innumerable saints and composers. Among the musical luminaries mention may be made to Sri Jayadeva, Sant Meerabai and Bhakti Tukaram Maharaj. Jayadeva was a Sanskrit poet during the 13th century. He is most known for his epic poem Gita Govinda which concentrates on Krishna's love with the gopi, Radha, in a city of spring. Sant Meerabai was a 16th-century Hindu mystic poet and devotee of Krishna. Her poems have philosophical connotations. Tukaram Maharaj was a celebrated poet of Maharashtra whose Bhajangs stand immortal in the sphere of Bhakti-ranga worship. This competition is organized in order to glorify their bhakti towards the Lord Sri Hari, who is being worshipped in many forms.

General Guidelines

- Two participants from each college can participate in the Competition
- Of the three composers, participants are asked to give a list of two songs, each from any two composers with their Ragas, Tala in the Google form
- Judges will ask one among the two songs given in the list
- Duration - 4 minutes
- The participants should abide time limit strictly
- Participants should keep their Video and Audio 'On' during their performance
- Participants are to be dressed up in Traditional dress code
