Mr. Gopalswami, Former Director, Dalmia Cements, J. Raguathan, Secretary of National College, Mr. Manaalan, Proprietor, Saratha's Textile showroom, honoured and felicitated our Secretary.

From the Secretary's Desk

This newsletter presents a comprehensive array of academic events. It ratifies the commitment of the faculty and the involvement of students. Congratulations!

I appreciate all those who have received meritorious awards for the exemplary contribution to their area of research. The amazing number of research papers presented at the National and International level deserves my appreciation and I particularly wish to acknowledge Dr.M. Jayanthi, Dr. J. Senthamarai and Dr. A.S. Maheswari for having presented their research papers abroad.

The record of students' achievements - academic, co-curricular and cultural - shows that we are marching towards excellence and validates that women empowerment envisaged by our Founder has become a reality.

Education imparted needs to be socially relevant and the programmes enlisted in this newsletter confirm that you have rightly understood the essence of education.

I wish you would continue to venture all areas of knowledge and leave no stone unturned. The quest is to be ever kept alive in order to progress and proceed.

R. Panchapakesan
Managing Trustee & Secretary

From the Principal's Desk

'None of us is as strong as all of us.'

Team work assumes Himalayan importance as the organisation grows bigger and stronger. Team SRC believes that a year cannot just be another year in life but should be an eventful record of our rededication to the cause of education.

'One has to stay relevant to the world one inhabits through continuous learning and by enhancing core competencies.' With this as our watchword we work to make meaningful contribution to the society. In acknowledgement of this honours and awards pour in.

Dr.K.Venidevi, Former Head, Department of History, Dr.R.Vijayalakshmi, Department of Commerce, Dr. J. Senthamarai, Department of Hindi, Dr.M.V.Alli and Mrs. N.Chellam Department of Nutrition and Dietetics, Dr. K. Selvi and Mrs. M.P.Tamilselvi, Department of Tamil have been honoured with various titles and awards for their outstanding contributions to the student community through education leading to nation building.

I congratulate the teachers who have represented SRC in the International platforms with their research findings.

My appreciations are to Dr.M.Nalini, Department of History and Dr.S.Mythili, Department of Music for publishing books of epigraphical importance and musical resonance respectively. Research contributions of the faculty members with 192 papers presentation in seminars and conferences and publications of 153 articles in peer reviewed journals (National and International) deserve special mention.

Three UGC sponsored National Seminars organised by the Centre for Ethics and Human Values, Department of Home Science and Mathematics; National Science Academies' sponsored Lecture Workshop by the Department of Zoology and the Commemoration of Silver Jubilee Celebration of SRC Project - Task-based English teaching organised by the Department of English are commendable. All the other departments remained active throughout this year, conducting many special lectures, seminars and workshops. Three Faculty Development Programmes organised by IQAC for the new recruits to place them on track are timely punctuated forethought.

The inauguration of 'SEERA'S Diet Clinic' to create awareness on nutrition and diet counseling and 'SEERA Campus Shop' to acquire entrepreneurial skill is praise worthy.

I congratulate the students for their active participation in various curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and bringing laurels to the institution.

We owe all our success and achievements to Goddess Akilandeswari and our revered Founder.

Dr. M. Jayanthi
Principal
